

Royal Windsor Horse Show - 14th to 17th May 2026

Media Accreditation

Terms and Conditions: Journalists and Photographers

- Media accreditation is open to working members of the media only.
- If your application is approved, please keep an eye out for an email from rwhsaccreditation@hpower.co.uk with further instructions on how to confirm your pass. You will need to upload a headshot for your photo pass prior to the event.
- Please make sure you bring two forms of ID to pick up your pass which will be waiting for you at the Accreditation Cabin at the Show. Please allow enough time to pick up passes on arrival.
- Please send us any press cuttings, web links or PDF cuttings from the Show to: rwhs@thirtythree18.com
- Photographers must not canvas riders, owners, or the public in order to sell photographs taken at the show.
- Accredited media should be supplying images for editorial purposes only.
- Accreditation allows photographers access to specific points outside of the Castle Arena and all other outer rings
- Accreditation allows writers into the media seats.
- If you are a photographer, you are required to wear a photo vest and a £20 cash deposit is asked for when you arrive at the Media Centre in return for the bib.
- There is a dress code for this event; please do not wear jeans or denim. For those wishing to enter the Castle Arena, a jacket and tie is required for gentlemen, and a dress or smart trousers for women. (Please note access to the Castle Arena is assessed on a case-by-case basis and only possible with the permission of the Media Centre team.)
- No live filming is allowed anywhere on the Showground.

- Accreditation passes are non-transferable.
- Hotels and parking can be booked and purchased on the RWHS website at rwhs.co.uk

Broadcasters should note that Royal Windsor Horse Show has in place a rights agreement with its official streaming partner. News access footage can be provided on request – this is the footage taken by the Show’s production team. If you are planning to request this footage, please make the request in advance, and bring a hard drive.
